HGTC Observes National Career Development Week with Career "Pop-Up" Student Activities

The Career Resource Center, in collaboration with the Office of Student Engagement at Horry Georgetown Technical College, observed National Career Development Week with three days of career focused student activities on its campuses. Students were engaged in career trivia events, enjoyed popcorn bars and inspirational art projects, and heard from special guest speakers from the business community who talked about entrepreneurship and how to stay on track while in college. The events were designed to expose students to career related topics and advice with a series of career "pop-up" events around the college campuses. Thorne Research Opening Facility in Summerville

THORNE RESEARCH

Thorne is a personalized health solutions company dedicated to improving individual outcomes through science and technology. For over 30 years, Thorne has led the nutritional supplement industry in providing research-based, high-quality natural products, including foundational vitamins and minerals, therapeutic-focused nutritional supplements, and NSF Certified for Sport products. By leveraging cutting-edge research and personalized data through affiliate WellnessFX, Thorne offers customized preventive health solutions for practitioners, their patients, and athletes.

Thorne Research is in the process of completing its new facility in Summerville, SC. The company will be transitioning all operations to SC in 2018. The following are a few of the positions for which Thorne Research will be hiring: facilities maintenance technician, maintenance mechanic, engineer, buyer, scheduler, document control specialist, micro analyst, quality control and quality assurance specialist, QC analyst, shipping technician, and packaging operator. Look for these positions and others to be posted at www.sctechjobs.com or www.thorne.com over the next several months. SCACE members can contact Stacey Bond at sbond@thorne.com with questions or for more information.
